

BOULDER VALLEY VELODROME

Saturday Sprint Series

The Match Sprints – The one on one, cat and mouse race, that start so slow and ends in an all-out dash to the finish line. The BVV Sprint Series is a great way for newer riders to learn the basics of racing - Matched with opponents of similar speed, the races are usually against just one other rider. This makes it safer and easier to learn. For our more seasoned riders, the Sprint Series works to hone strategy and tactics. Maybe try out some new moves to help build for State, National or World Championships.
